

HORT4U PLANT SALE 2022

venmo

NEW NATIVE SPECIES AND VARIETIES THIS YEAR!

NATIVE PERENNIALS & POLLINATOR PLANTS, HOMEGROWN AND PESTICIDE FREE!

Sale Begins: Sat. June 11th- Sun. June 12th 10 am-5 pm

Also available by private appointment. Pre-reservations will be taken.

Location: 1006 177th Place, Hammond, IN

All plants $3 donation- 6 plants for $15

A portion of the proceeds will be donated to Monarch conservation and research.

Payment: cash or Venmo: scan QR code in the Venmo app. Questions? Email: PlantSale@Hort4U.net

Botanic Name	Common Name	Notables- *Native plants
Allium cernuum *	Nodding wild onion	Late summer bloomer, edible foliage in spring-like Chives!
Agastache foeniculum *	Anise hyssop	Root beer scented
Asclepias incarnata *	Swamp/ rose milkweed	A well-behaved MW for every garden *
Asclepias incarnata	Swamp/ white milkweed	Same, just white blooms *
Asclepias speciosa	Showy milkweed	Western species but grows well here, very pretty! *
Asclepias sullivantii *	Prairie milkweed	Great substitute for common, for smaller gardens *
Asclepias syriaca *	Common milkweed	Very fragrant blooms in mid -June/ monarch host *
Asclepias tuberosa *	Butterfly weed	The orange blooming milkweed
Baptisia australis *	False blue indigo	Vibrant purple spring bloom
Coreopsis lanceolata *	Lance-leaved coreopsis	Sun shiny yellow!
Columbine canadensis *	Wild columbine	Beautiful and dainty spring bloomer
Delphinium exaltatum *	Native larkspur	Very tall larkspur- like 4' tall, y'all!
Echinacea purpurea x \tenn.	Purple coneflower	Nice cross, tough plants!
Echinacea pallida *	Pale coneflower	Beautiful pale pink flowers
Eupatorium maculatum *	Spotted Joe Pye weed	Tall and mighty monarch feeder
Liatris spicata *	Marsh blazing star	Very popular with bees and butterflies
Rudbeckia lanceolata *	Golden Glow rudbeckia	Golden yellow daisy late season
Rudbeckia submentosa *	Sweet black-eyed Susan	Smells like teen spirit!
Rudbeckia triloba *	Brown-eyed Susan	Prolific bloomer for tiny bees
Rumex *	Blood sorrel	A Native Edible! Use in spring salads
Silphium integrifolium *	rosinweed	Better than cup plant, not as spready!
Solidago rigida *	Stiff goldenrod	A well-behaved goldenrod for the garden
Symphotrichum novae-angliae *	New England aster	Pink and purple varieties, late bloom nectar source
Verbena hastata *	Blue vervain	Very tall, clusters of tiny blooms for all pollinators
Verbena stricta *	Hoary vervain	Shorter, clusters of tiny blooms for all pollinators
Botanic Name	Common Name	Notables- NON-Native Pollinator Plants
Asclepias curassavica	Tropical milkweed	Annual milkweed, good for accent planting *
Catnip	Catnip	Something for the kitties!
Calamintha nepeta sub. nepeta	Calamint	Small mounds of tiny white blooms, cloud-like
Centaurea macrocephala	Yellow Cornflower	Big, lush, lemon-colored blooms mid-June
Aquilegia vulgaris 'Altrosa'	Columbine Pink Granny's Bonnet	Beautiful and dainty spring bloomer
Echinops ritro	Globe thistle	Vibrant blue orbs for the bees!
Geranium x cantabrigiense	'Biokovo'	Great groundcover and blooms for the bees
Gomphocarpus physocarpus	Balloon milkweed/ hairy balls MW	Strange but true!
Leucanthemum x superbum	'Becky'	Beautiful Shasta daisy, great groundcover plant
Papaver orientale	Poppy 'Brilliant'	Giant orange blooms
Ruta graveolens	Rue	Host plant for giant swallowtail

* Monarch host plant